

GDPR information - we use Facebook, Weebly, Eventbrite and Twitter to communicate, We are reliant upon them keeping up to date with GDPR compliance.

Changes to UK Data Protection law are due to come into effect on the 25th May 2018. These changes require us to have your active consent to retain personal data such as your name, telephone, postal and email addresses, and to contact you regarding your membership, events, trips, and other activities  Without your active consent you will no longer receive any email reminders or communications from Autistic Pride Reading  For more information regarding these new laws please go to:

<https://ico.org.uk/media/1624219/preparing-for-the-gdpr-12-steps.pdf> .

Autistic Pride Reading will store only the following information:

Name ;Email Address (monthly emails, and joining instructions for specific activities)
Telephone Numbers (used only on exceptional circumstances such as cancellations or events booking, no marketing calls) Postal Address (only required for Gift Aid and Trustees)

Autistic Pride Reading will never pass your information on to third parties. Autistic Pride Reading restricts access to this information to a minimum number of executive committee members (trustees) on an 'as-needed' basis. You may request to see the information that is held about you by Autistic Pride Reading and you may request that this information is removed from the Autistic Pride Reading database at any time by emailing autisticpridereading@gmail.com In order to continue to receive emails from Autistic Pride Reading please complete ASAP the form below